

Your cookie settings on www.ubs.com

We use cookies to provide you with a safe, effective and user-friendly website. Should you want to change your cookie settings, please use our cookie management tool below. Please visit our Privacy Statement if you want to learn more about our privacy and cookie policy.

- Performance & tracking cookies -

We use performance & tracking cookies to further improve our website in order to always provide you with the best possible online experience tailored to your needs. We never store any personal data which might identify you personally (such as your IP address) or as a client of UBS.

- User preference cookies -

User preference cookies are used to facilitate your access to www.ubs.com. We use them to show you the correct UBS homepage and language for your country and to remember these settings when you visit www.ubs.com the next time.

- Technical cookies -

Technical cookies are strictly necessary for www.ubs.com to work properly. We use them to remember your entries in a form or to provide you access to closed user groups using your UBS My Site profile. Technical cookies cannot be deactivated.
